

Two wrestlers win state titles

A pair of Rhino Wrestling Club members captured state titles Feb. 13 at the North Carolina Junior High and Elementary Championships in Winston-Salem.

Samuel Bartram won top honors in the seventh grade, 105-pound division while Bradley Wanovich won the title in the fifth/sixth grade, 80-pound class.

You can learn more about the Rhino Wrestling Club by checking out their Web site, the aptly named www.rhinowrestling.org.

Schedule changes

Thanks to our recent bouts with snow on weekends, the Fayetteville-Cumberland Parks and Recreation schedule has a little white out on it these days.

Get it?

White out?

Anyway, there are a bunch of schedule changes, makeup dates and site changes posted on our youth sports Web site, www.910rec.com.

Baseball

One of the first things I heard when I took this job a couple of years ago was how much Hope Mills loves its baseball.

That passion is evident all the way down to T-ball

910Rec

Randy Capps

level, and if you want in on this year's season, you need to get a move on.

The Hope Mills Parks and Recreation Department is accepting registration for all of its spring sports through Feb. 27.

Youth sports offered are T-ball (ages 5-6), baseball (ages 7-17), softball (ages 7-18) and indoor soccer (ages 5-12).

The fees are $30 for one child and $20 for each additional child from the same family and residing at the same address.

A birth certificate or other acceptable proof of age (military ID, passport, original immunization record) must be presented at the time of registration.

Late registration will not be held.

For more information, call 426-4109.

Community sports editor Randy Capps can be reached at capps@fayobserver.com or 323-4848, ext. 354.